Helping you to keep a close connection and supporting development projects at the partner monasteries and nunneries and the local communities which they serve

In a ground-breaking initiative, state-of-the-art online services are now available from over forty of the major monasteries and nunneries of India and Nepal.

Gompa - Tibetan Monastery Services is a not-for-profit partnership of charitable foundations whose Advisory Council includes:

H.H. the Gyalwang
Karmapa

H.H. the Gongma
Trichen Rinpoche

H.H. the Drikung
Kyabgon Chetsang

H.H. the 34th
Menri Trizin

H.E. Kyabje
Ling Rinpoche

H.E. Minling
Khenchen Rinpoche

H.E. Choekyi
Nangwa Rinpoche

The online services established by Gompa so far, include:

- year round high production quality webcasts of teachings by eminent Rinpoches and senior lamas,
- online arrangement of prayers and pujas,
- an online service for making offerings and donations to the partner monasteries and nunneries with no transfer fees.

Together with providing the online services, a primary aim of the Gompa partnership is to help in the development of educational and scholastic research resources available in the monasteries and nunneries and to help support a range of environmental and social welfare projects both within each partner monastery and nunnery and within the local communities which they serve.
